FIX THE MINIMUM PRICE OF COTTON

Committee to Do So Named by the Association at Asheville.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ASHEVILLE, N. C., September 6.—The Southern Cotton Growers' Association convened here to-day. The opening session was devoted to the appointment of a committee, among them one to fix the minimum price at which the farmer should sell his cotton this year. This committee will submit its report tomorrow. A committee also was appointed to compile an estimate of last year's cotton crop. The committee consists of J. A. Brown, North Carolina; J. C. Martin, of Mississippi; and W. F. Penke, of Georgia.

An auxiliary committee, which will report statistics to the estimating committee, will also be appointed and will consist of one delegate from each of the fourteen cotton-growing States. It was the sense of the meeting to-day that this crop report and the determining of the minimum price are the principal subjects before the convention.

A suggestion made by J. C. Martin, that the constitution be revised so as to admit of the enlargement of the association's scope resulted in the appointment of the following committee to frame resolutions:

J. D. Smith, of South Carolina; J. L. Hickey, of Texas, and S. W. Witherspoon, of Mississippi.

The committee having in charge the fixing of the minimum price of the cotton crop are as follows:

Brooks, of Alabama; Love, of Arkansas; Miller, of Georgia; Maxwell, of Louisiana; Witherspoon, of Mississippi; Martin, of North Carolina; Smith, of South Carolina; Chairman Davis, of Tennessee; Hickey, of Texas, and Edwin, of Oklahoma.

THE MURRAY CASE.

It is Argued Before the North Carolina Supreme Court.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) RALEIGH, N. C., September 6.—In the Supreme Court to-day the notable Murray case from Durham was argued by the Attorney-General for the State and R. W. Winston and James S. Manning for Robert Murray, the defendant, who is under two years' sentence for manslaughter for killing his uncle.

The argument for the defense was that in the Superior Court the judge had charged that the crime was manslaughter, at least, and that Murray had started the row.

The defense maintained that he did not start it, and that there was evidence in proof, and that even if he did start it, he afterwards retreated. It was further contended that the judge committed a grievous error in charging the jury that the witnesses for the State were positive, and those for the defense negative, and that under such charge, the jury had no discretion whatever except to convict.

SUPREME COURT UPHOLDS JUDGE

Affirms Decision of Ward In Case of Ex-Mayor of Durham.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) RALEIGH, N. C., September 6.—The Supreme Court, through Chief Justice Walter Clark, as soon as it met this morning at 10 o'clock, made announcement of its decision in the contempt case of ex-Mayor Moses McGowan, of Durham, who struck Judge Ward, of the Superior Court, and who, by that judge, was sentenced for contempt to serve thirty days in a common jail and to pay a fine of $500.

The Supreme Court affirms the action of Judge Ward. The opinion was oral, and the chief justice announced that later there would be a written one filed. This will probably be done next Tuesday, when the regular filing of opinions is required. The action of the court was, of course, expected, the State having made a very strong showing in support of the course taken by Judge Ward in protecting his own honor and that of the courts.

Pay for Volunteers.

Mr. Carter, of Alabama, who here to-day and had a conference with Governor Glenn regarding the matter of additional pay for volunteers in the war with Spain. He stated to the Governor that troops were sent to North Carolina as late as they arrived at their respective armories. Here in North Carolina the troops were mustered in during May, but a number of them drew pay from April 27th, to which time they were furnished. A number had reported as their muster in response to the call some days before April 27th.

North Carolina will send quite a large delegation to Richmond on the 23rd to attend the annual meeting of the Farmers' National Association. Last year over 100 delegates were appointed by Governor Aycock, and all these appointments have been confirmed.

New Rural Routes.

There are now forty-three game warden in North Carolina. The supervising warden, John W. Upchurch, of this city, says the Audubon law is popular in North Carolina and is being well enforced. So far as the warden are concerned, there are now very few violations of it.

The postmaster here received notice of five new rural free delivery routes established, these being as follows:

Clarendon, E. B. Thick; Elberle, John C. McBride; Goldston, George R. Hays; Bushy Forks, Robert H. Malone; Mount Pleasant, James L. Peck. The total number of these carriers in the State is now about a thousand.

The Agricultural and Mechanical College is really overcrowded. It is greatly to be regretted that more dormitory room is not to be provided. There are more students in the agricultural department now than any other. This increase no provision whatever has been made.

Question of Immigrants.

Acting Immigration Commissioner T. K. Bruner, when interviewed as to the reason why there are so few calls for immigrants to come to North Carolina as laborers or as tenants, said that on the side of the people here in North Carolina who wanted immigrants on their farms, they do not wish any people unless they know who they are, where they are from, and what they are capable of doing.

QUIET AT WILMINGTON.

Police Apprehend No Further Trouble with the Negroes.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WILMINGTON, N. C., Sept. 6.—Everything is quite to-night in the vicinity of the home of Lee Rivermark, the young white man who was threatened with violence in a negro settlement of the city late last night.

While the police apprehend no further trouble with the blacks, an extra number of men have been assigned to duty in the city. It has been stated at the city hall for use of the men in case of an emergency.

Although commanders of the local military have tendered the services of their companies to the police department, the officers have been thanked, but declined as the police believe themselves fully able to cope with the situation.

A. C. L. Superintendents.

(By Associated Press.) WILMINGTON, N. C., September 6.—Announcement of the following appointments, effective September 10, was made at Atlantic Coast Line headquarters to-day:

W. H. Newell, superintendent of transportation, headquarters at Wilmington; O. H. Page, superintendent of Fayetteville district, headquarters at Rocky Mount, N. C.; G. D. Pugh, superintendent of Charlotte district, headquarters at Charlotte, N. C.; C. C. L. Forter, superintendent of Columbia district, headquarters at Florence, S. C.

Jiu Jitsu in Asheville.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) ASHEVILLE, N. C., September 6.—Prof. A. Ono, jiu-jitsu wrestler, of Japan, and instructor of the art at Annapolis Naval Academy, and Charles Olson, champion white man of Illinois, have signed articles for a mixed wrestling match in the city September 15th. One weighs 150 pounds, Olson 170.

Entzymering Goes to Jury.

Thomas Entzymering, the negro cook of the Richmond Hotel, who stabbed to death a fellow cook, George Herndon, on August 25th, was sent to the grand jury by Justice Crutchenfeld yesterday morning after all the evidence had been heard.

Witnesses before the court testified to about the same thing as was brought out before the coroner's jury. Mr. Gilbert K. Pollock represented the prisoner.
